

PROCLAMATION

On the 100th Birthday of Clora J. McEvoy

July 2025

WHEREAS, Clora J. McEvoy (nee Dumeney) was born in Mine Centre on July 5th, 1925, and then moved to Thunder Bay; and

WHEREAS, Clora did her patriotic duty working at CanPar during Word War II, assisting in the war effort and after the war moved to Fort Frances; and

WHEREAS, Clora raised a family of seven after her husband was killed in a car accident, attending night school while working during the day in order to complete her secondary education; and

WHEREAS, Clora then trained as a registered nurses assistant in order to support her family; and

WHEREAS, Clora is a life-time member of the Legion Ladies Auxiliary and a member of the Legion Colour Guard; and

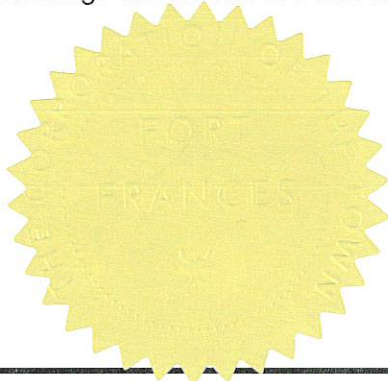

WHEREAS, Clora has served as a community volunteer including delivering Meals on Wheels; and

WHEREAS, Clora most recently participated in the annual Alzheimer's Walk this past May at the age of ninety-nine; and

WHEREAS, Clora is a long-time productive and outstanding member of our community, always willing to lend a helping hand,

NOW THEREFORE, I, Mayor Andrew Hallikas, proclaim July 5th, a special day in the Town of Fort Frances to honour a special lady and an ideal resident on the occasion of her hundredth birthday; and

FURTHER, I encourage all citizens of Fort Frances to wish Clora J. McEvoy a very happy 100th birthday.

Andrew Hallikas, Mayor
